AWAS delivers Boeing 737-800 to CanJet Airlines

Dublin, 16 February 2009

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has concluded a lease for a Boeing 737-800 to CanJet Airlines of Canada. CanJet will use this aircraft to grow its charter services to sun destinations such as the Caribbean and Mexico from its bases across Canada.

CanJet is another new customer for AWAS, further diversifying the AWAS fleet and expanding its presence in Canada. Peter Ellison, Head of Sales at AWAS said: "AWAS continues to diversify its fleet worldwide. This lease to CanJet underpins this strategy as we develop new opportunities globally"

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 215 modern aircraft with a further 131 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 48 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally friendly aircraft to their customers.
