

AWAS celebrates delivery of its 125th Boeing aircraft

737-800 delivered by AWAS to customer Garuda Indonesia

Dublin, 19th September 2011

Dublin based global aircraft lessor, AWAS, announced that it has received its 125th Boeing aircraft, a new 737-800 that was delivered to current customer Garuda Indonesia. This aircraft is also Garuda's first to be equipped with the advanced Boeing Sky Interior.

"Garuda Indonesia is an important AWAS customer and we are very pleased to deliver this new aircraft to assist them with their fleet modernisation and expansion plans," said Ray Sisson, President & CEO AWAS. "We are also proud to mark this aircraft as AWAS' 125th Boeing delivery. The people of AWAS around the globe have helped us to achieve this milestone by their dedication and success delivering innovative solutions to our customers."
