AWAS delivers A340-300 to Aerolineas Argentinas

Dublin, 11 May 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered an Airbus A340-300 to Aerolineas Argentinas based in Buenos Aires.

This is the sixth aircraft which AWAS will place with Aerolineas Argentinas. This aircraft will initially be used to support the existing long-haul network.

Mariano Recalde, Aerolineas CEO, said “we are happy to conclude this transaction with AWAS and with the flexibility of the terms and conditions which suited our requirements very well.”

“As one of our valued clients we are delighted to place another aircraft with Aerolineas, who already operate both wide and narrowbody AWAS aircraft. Our relationship with Aerolineas is yet another example of how our diverse fleet allows our customers to access perfectly tailored solutions to meet their specific requirements.” said Franklin Pray, CEO of AWAS.

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of 208 modern aircraft with a further 118 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to 94 airline customers in 49 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
