AWAS delivers 767-200ER to AeroSur

Dublin, 26 July 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered a Boeing 767-200ER to AeroSur, headquartered in Santa Cruz de la Sierra.

The aircraft will operate on routes from Santa Cruz to Miami and Buenos Aires.

Humberto Roca, President of AeroSur stated "Having tripled in size over the last two years, and now the largest airline in Bolivia, we have turned our focus to the international market. This market is highly competitive and demands quality service at the right price. This 767-200ER is the second craft of this type to join our fleet as we move to upgrade to next generation aircraft in order to compete successfully on international routes."

"The expansion of AeroSur over the last couple of years is impressive and we are delighted to continue to support them as they develop their fleet. Latin America, along with Asia/Pacific, is driving recovery in the aviation industry and we continue to look to strengthen our customer base in the region." commented Walter Valarezo, Senior Vice President Sales, AWAS.

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 214 modern aircraft with a further 129 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 49 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 737-800 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
