Air Via commits to 2 new Airbus A320's from AWAS

Dublin, 30 July 2010

Dublin-based lessor AWAS today announced the lease of 2 new Airbus A320's to Air Via, based in Varna, Bulgaria.

"We have been an Airbus operator since 2006, when we decided to convert our entire fleet to A320's. At that time we started with brand new aircraft and we continue this tradition, which allows us to maintain the highest quality of service to our customers." stated Michael Donsky, Managing Director of Air Via. "The support of AWAS' knowledge and experience has proved invaluable to us as we sought to secure these aircraft"

"It was through listening to the customer, that AWAS was able to win the business and start a long term partnership with Air Via. At AWAS we are constantly monitoring the demands of the market and considering what benefits new technology can bring to our customers so that we can offer a range of aircraft which best meet their needs. We are delighted to lend support to another successful Airbus customer" said Jennifer Moulton, Senior Vice President Sales, AWAS.
