AWAS delivers Boeing 737-300QC to Europe Airpost

Dublin, 08 April 2009

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has completed a lease transaction with Europe Airpost for the lease of a Boeing 737-300QC.

The Paris based airline operates a range of Boeing aircraft, 4 Boeing 737-300Fs and 13 Boeing 737-300QCs. This aircraft will add to the capacity for the cargo business Europe Airpost operates for the postal service and newspaper distribution services.

Peter Ellison, Head of Sales at AWAS said: "We are delighted to welcome back Europe Airpost as a customer. AWAS is continuing to expand its customer base throughout Europe, an important growth area for the business"

Jean-François Dominiak, Chief Executive Officer of Europe Airpost said: "We are delighted to be working again with AWAS, the lease of this aircraft will help enable Europe Airpost to continue its demanding operating schedules"

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 214 modern aircraft with a further 129 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 88 airline customers in 46 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.
