

AWAS Delivers Second and Third of Five Planned 737-800s to GOL

Continued support of GOL's fleet expansion and optimization initiative

Dublin, 10th November 2011

Dublin based aircraft lessor, AWAS, announced today that it has delivered the second and third Boeing 737-800 passenger aircraft to the largest low-cost airline in Latin America, GOL. These aircraft are part of five deliveries from AWAS to GOL planned through early 2013.

In March of this year, GOL and AWAS entered into a purchase and lease back agreement for five Boeing 737-800s that the carrier had previously ordered directly from the manufacturer.

These new aircraft are equipped with the Boeing Sky Interior, offering GOL's passengers a superior level of comfort and convenience.
