

AWAS takes delivery of 50th Boeing 737

737-800 aircraft delivered by AWAS to customer Garuda Indonesia

Dublin, 19th October 2011

Dublin based global aircraft lessor, AWAS, announced today that it has taken delivery of the company's 50th Boeing 737, a 737-800 fitted with the Sky Interior which the company then delivered on lease to customer Garuda Indonesia.

"Boeing would like to congratulate AWAS on their 50th Boeing 737 aircraft," said Randy Tinseth, VP Marketing Boeing Commercial Airplanes. "AWAS has been a big believer in the value of this aircraft, and their recent strong growth demonstrates they are delivering innovative solutions for their customers."

"AWAS is indeed very proud to mark this occasion as the delivery of our 50th B737," said Ray Sisson, President & CEO AWAS. "We believe that our customer solutions-centric platform, combined with superior performing assets is an unbeatable combination."
