Growing Bolivian airline looks toward regional expansion

Dublin, 12th October 2011

Dublin based global aircraft lessor, AWAS, announced that it has delivered a second B737-300 to Bolivian airline, Boliviana.

A valued AWAS customer since 2009, having supported its initial launch, Boliviana plans to expand its route network to additional international destinations. Currently Boliviana serves Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires as well as six domestic destinations from its hub in Cochabamba.

“AWAS has been a strong supporter of ours from the very beginning,” said Ronald Casso, CEO Boliviana Airlines. “This additional 737 from AWAS signifies our successful growth and their continuing partnership with us.”

“We are proud to continue and grow our relationship with Boliviana,” said Doug Winter, Head of Sales, AWAS. “Boliviana is dedicated to delivering superior and efficient service to an expanding market.”
