AWAS delivers further A330-300 aircraft to Singapore Airlines

Dublin, 10 February 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered another Airbus A330-300 aircraft to Singapore Airlines. AWAS took delivery of the aircraft from Airbus in Toulouse on Friday and from there it was flown to Singapore. The A330-300 is the fourth of six that Singapore Airlines is leasing from AWAS, out of a total of 19 A330-300s that the airline will be acquiring.

This aircraft will be added to the A330 fleet operating on Singapore Airlines' regional and medium haul routes, initially linking Singapore with destinations in Australia and Japan. Singapore Airlines is configuring its A330s in a high comfort layout seating 285 passengers in two classes, with accommodation for 30 in Business Class and 255 in Economy.

Frank Pray, President & Chief Executive Officer at AWAS said: "AWAS is delighted to deliver our fourth A330 to Singapore Airlines. We look forward to building a long relationship with Singapore Airlines and to supporting them in their ambition to offer the highest standard of service through the operation of a state of the art fleet".

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 200 modern aircraft with a further 127 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 47 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
