AWAS delivers fifth A330-300 aircraft to Singapore Airlines

Dublin, 16th March 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered its fifth Airbus A330-300 aircraft to Singapore Airlines.

This aircraft will join the fleet of A330-300s which Singapore Airlines will operate on selected routes serving the Middle East, West Asia and North Asia. From March this year, these routes will include services to Abu Dhabi, Jeddah and Kuwait, as well as Male. April will see the addition of A330-300 services to Fukuoka and Taipei and from the beginning of May the aircraft will serve Colombo.

Franklin Pray, President & Chief Executive Officer at AWAS said: "We are proud that delivery of this fifth aircraft further cements our relationship with Singapore Airlines. Access to state of the art technology is key to the success of premium carriers, along with our diverse portfolio, AWAS maintains an attractive pipeline of next-generation aircraft offering flexible and timely solutions to our valued customers."

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 200 modern aircraft with a further 127 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 47 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
