Singapore Airlines becomes AWAS' largest customer with delivery of sixth A330-300

Dublin, 4th May 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered its sixth Airbus A330-300 aircraft to Singapore Airlines.

As a part of Singapore Airlines' ongoing product enhancement efforts, this aircraft will join the fleet of A330-300s which will operate on selected routes serving the Middle East, West Asia, North Asia and the South West Pacific.

Franklin Pray, President & Chief Executive Officer at AWAS said: "The delivery of this aircraft means that Singapore Airlines is now AWAS' largest customer. We are proud to have established a strong relationship with such a prestigious airline. Our local presence, along with our experience and flexibility, continues to make us the lessor of choice for many operators in the Asia-Pacific region."

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 200 modern aircraft with a further 124 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 47 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
