AWAS delivers 737-400 to Xtra Airways

Dublin, 26 April 2010

Dublin based lessor, AWAS, has delivered a Boeing 737-400 to Xtra Airways of Elko, Nevada, USA.

This is the second AWAS 737-400 to be delivered to Xtra Airways. The aircraft will operate primarily on charter services for the United States Government. The airline has successfully doubled its fleet in the past six months.

Lisa Dunn, President of Xtra Airways commented “we are delighted with the support we have received from AWAS in expanding our fleet. Their flexible, customer-centric approach has facilitated the leasing transactions.”

“Xtra is a valued customer for AWAS and we are pleased to play a role in their fleet expansion. We are able to draw from our broad portfolio to supply aircraft that are well suited to the charter market. This is an area where we intend to grow” said Franklin Pray, President & CEO of AWAS.

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 200 modern aircraft with a further 124 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 90 airline customers in 47 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally-friendly aircraft to their customers.
