AWAS leases one Boeing 737-500 to Bulgaria Air

Dublin, 26th May 2008

AWAS one of the world's largest aircraft lessors, has concluded a lease transaction for one Boeing 737-500 to Bulgaria Air. This is the second aircraft of this type which AWAS has on lease to the airline. The aircraft, MSN 24785 is powered by CFM engines.

AWAS continues to offer responsive and flexible solutions to airlines through more than 20 years of industry expertise.

About AWAS

Headquartered in Dublin, with offices in New York, Miami, and Singapore, AWAS is one of the largest aircraft leasing companies in the world. The company is managed by a highly experienced team of commercial aviation industry professionals serving markets in The Americas, Europe, Middle East, and Asia/Pacific.

AWAS owns a portfolio of more than 220 modern aircraft with a further 128 aircraft on order from Airbus and Boeing including a number of next generation aircraft. The aircraft portfolio is on lease to over 100 airline customers in 45 countries. The AWAS fleet features a full range of aircraft types and the company became one of the first lessors to order both the Boeing 787 and the Airbus A350XWB.

Through the order of up to 50 new Boeing aircraft and up to 100 Airbus aircraft in 2007, AWAS now offers new fuel-efficient and environmentally friendly aircraft to their customers.
