

AWAS Delivers Fourth of Five Planned 737-800s to GOL

Continued support of GOL's fleet expansion and optimization initiative

Dublin, 03 February 2012

Dublin based aircraft lessor, AWAS, announced today that it has delivered a fourth Boeing 737-800 passenger aircraft to the largest low-cost airline in Latin America, GOL. These aircraft are part of five deliveries from AWAS to GOL planned through early 2013.

In March 2011, GOL and AWAS entered into a purchase and lease back agreement for five Boeing 737-800s that the carrier had previously ordered directly from the manufacturer.

These new aircraft are equipped with the Boeing Sky Interior, offering GOL's passengers a superior level of comfort and convenience.
